He was an employe of the fully made up today.

Millions of dollars were represented in the men present. Vigorous speeches denouncing the boycott, strike disturbances and disorder were made by J. G. W. Cowles and James H. Hoyt. In their addresses they upheld the course of Mayor Farley in his measures to suppress disorders and said it was time for reputable citizens to unite and restore peace, quiet and safety to the city. A ommittee of five was then selected to bring about lawful conditions. A demand for a United States army military post in Cleveland was unanimously made and steps were taken to increase the police force of the city.

At the strikers' picnic held at Scenic mayor said: mayor said:

"We are in an epidemic of labor troubles, strikes, lockouts and boycotts, affecting widely separated portions of our country and as widely diversified ndustrial interests disturb the land, the condition may be fitly characterized as one of industrial civil war. The boycott is a cruel and unjust weapon in many ways. Boycott is war and both sides have a right to fight. I am not here with a plan for settling the diffi-culty in Cleveland alone. I am here to urge, to plead for, to propose a remedy that is a sovereign and final remedy, not only for street railroad strikes, but for all kinds of difficulties with labor in every sort of public utility. There is cuch a remedy and only one. The remedy may be found in absolute municipal ownership, ownership and control. In short the fundamental cause of the trouble in Cleveland to-day is found in the fact that a few men are granted the right of ownership in a class of property that should never under any circumstances become private possession, but should be property of the whole people. I am an apostle of ought to be made among the officers in command of the American forces at belief in war under any circumstances. I do not believe that any good thing methods of peace."

Mayor Jones held a political confer ence with strike labor leaders and local agitators in the American house, at which he decided to leave the Cleveland end of his campaign as an inde pendent candidate for governor of Ohio entirely in the hands of the street railway strikers.

Charles H. Bond, 18 years old, of 165 Seeley street, was placed under arrest upon the charge of placing explosives on the tracks of the Big Consolidated during the strike on the road in June last. The police are confident they have made an important arrest.

CANTON, O., Aug. 10 .- At their home about six miles from this city, three discharges from a shotgun removed from life the family of Edward Eckinger consisting of husband, wife and 3-yearold daughter.

That the fatal shots were fired by the woman, was indicated by gashes in her wrists from a bloody razor at her side, by blistered lips a broken carbolic acid bottle, by a letter left in the room, and by the condition of the bodies and the iouse where the tragedy was discovered. At the home of an aunt, Mrs. Eckin-ger accused her husband of infidelity and of visiting wine rooms in Canton. They left the relative's house still wrangling, and that was the last seen of them alive. The letter left was addressed: "To mamma; God bless her dear heart." It asked forgiveness for what she was doing, emphasized her love for her husband, said she could not live without him, and for that reason said, "I am taking him with me.
